

meet your instructor:

Neil Peterson

About Me

Neil Peterson has been singing and playing music his entire life. In addition to being a band, choir and orchestra director, he has been a music director at several churches and has taught individual lessons on any musical instrument for over a decade!

A composer and performer, Neil loves helping students learn, play and sing their favorite songs they hear on the radio, youtube or their personal music collection.

My Favorites

- Coffee
- Cheese
- Heavenly Music

